

Job Title: Halftime Champion

Job Description:

This individual should have a strong desire to connect high capacity leaders into roles that will give them maximum kingdom impact. They will be committed to developing relationships with Halftimers as they open doors to ministry opportunities. It is necessary for the individual in this role to have a strong understanding and knowledge of the business world. It is suggested that this individual have previous business experience and a heart for the ministry in order to bridge the cultural gap between the business world and the ministry. It will be important to help create low-cost probe and short term experiences in order to fully develop the Halftimer's understanding of the mission and vision of the ministry.

Required Skills:

- Business Savvy
- Expertise in matching Halftimers to ministry opportunities
- Excellent communication and bridge building skills
- Comprehensive understanding of the entire ministry
- Networking Skills