- >> What is God’s plan for the second half of your life?
- >> Moving from “success to significance” is a journey not a decision: Are you curious about how the journey may impact your family, spouse and career?
- >> Is there life after success and if so what do you want to be remembered for?

Many individuals find themselves asking these same questions. Have you achieved success - only to find that something is missing? If so, you may be ready to begin the most exciting journey of your life- the journey from success to significance. Its commonly called Halftime. Halftime is a season of life that offers the opportunity to look back on what you’ve accomplished, understand who you are, and then redirect your time and talent for an even more purposeful second half. A second half, full of adventure and impact, involves stewarding our God-given resources --time, talent, treasure-- in a way that is consistent with our skills and interests and your unique calling.

Move from Success to Significance

Halftimers are often looking for ways to contribute their expertise to meet the problems facing impoverished peoples around the globe. The T3 Institute is a workshop that helps you and other high-capacity Christians discover creative ways to channel your talents toward Kingdom-significance. The tools, exercises, collaborative work and peer feedback will give you clarity for your second half. The T3 Institute, an invitation only event, will provide an opportunity to explore God’s plan for your time, talent and treasure in order to walk away with an initial “Life II” plan.

“Halftime is a pause in mid-life to look back and reflect on who we are and what we have accomplished - then to redirect our time and talent for the second half of life.”

- Bob Buford

“For we are God’s workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do.”

Ephesians 2:10 (NIV)

“It was great being in a room with so many like-minded people. I’m not the only one feeling what I’m feeling.”

-Dabbs Calvin
